115TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. R.

To designate the outstation of the Department of Veterans Affairs in North Ogden, Utah, as the Major Brent Taylor Vet Center Outstation.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Mr. BISHOP of Utah introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on _____

A BILL

To designate the outstation of the Department of Veterans Affairs in North Ogden, Utah, as the Major Brent Taylor Vet Center Outstation.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. FINDINGS.

4 Congress finds the following:

5 (1) Major Brent Taylor began his military serv-
6 ice following the attacks of September 11, 2001. He 7 joined the Army National Guard in 2003, three days
8 after his engagement to his wife, Jennie. Five of his

1 brothers would eventually serve in the Armed Forces
2 following the deadly attacks.

3 (2) During his time in the Army National
4 Guard, Major Taylor distinguished himself in service
5 to the United States and the State of Utah. He re-6 ceived a commission as a second lieutenant from the 7 Brigham Young University Reserve Officer Training
8 Corps in 2006, while graduating as a member of the 9 National Society of Collegiate Scholars.

10 (3) During his impressive career with the Utah
11 National Guard, Major Taylor distinguished himself
12 in multiple specialties, including Intelligence and 13 Military Police. One of his earliest assignments in-14 cluded analyzing foreign language documents in sup-
15 port of the Defense Intelligence Agency. He also led 16 document exploitation efforts in multiple European 17 and South American languages for a variety of intel-
18 ligence community customers. Major Taylor also 19 managed a team that assessed security
20 vulnerabilities at high-profile facilities across the 21 United States, all while maintaining a successful pri-
22 vate sector career in Utah.

23 (4) Major Taylor was continuously ready to 24 take up his Nation's call to arms and deployed four 25 times in support of operations in Iraq and Afghani-

1 stan. His deployed duties varied from Platoon Lead-
2 er and Combat Advisor to Chief of Staff to the Spe-
3 cial Operations Advisory Group, responsible for lead-
4 ing a joint task force advising and assisting an elite
5 Afghan special operations unit.

6 (5) Throughout his deployments, Major Taylor
7 distinguished himself on several occasions, earning a 8 multitude of awards including the Bronze Star. The 9 citation credits Major Taylor's ability to think calm-
10 ly and decisively with keeping his subordinates safe
11 while traversing 600,000 miles of roads in Iraq,
12 laden with improvised explosive devices (hereinafter, 13 "IED") and ripe for ambush.

14 (6) During one particularly harrowing mission,
15 Major Taylor's vehicle was struck by an IED. While 16 he survived the attack, the wounds he received
17 earned him the Purple Heart.

18 (7) Major Taylor's amazing record of service
19 was not limited to the battlefield. In 2010, he served 20 as a member of the North Ogden City Council and,
21 in 2013, Major Taylor was elected mayor. His stead-
22 fast leadership led to the city being recognized as 23 "Business Friendly" by the Governor of Utah, and 24 as one of the safest, freest cities in the United 25 States by several organizations. His initiatives in-

1 cluded improvements to public works and infrastruc-
2 ture, attracting businesses to the area, developing a
3 local community center, and increasing trans-
4 parency. His action led his constituents to reelect
5 Major Taylor in 2017.

6 (8) In 2018, Major Taylor placed himself on a 7 leave of absence from his mayoral duties in order to 8 deploy to Afghanistan, explaining to his constituents,
9 “Service is what leadership is all about”.

10 (9) While serving in Afghanistan, a dear col-
11 league, Afghani Lieutenant Kefayatullah, was killed
12 shortly before the Afghan elections. Major Taylor 13 wrote, “The strong turnout at that election, despite 14 the attacks and challenges, was a success for the 15 long-suffering people of Afghanistan, and for the 16 cause of human freedom. I am proud of the brave
17 Afghan and U.S. soldiers I serve with. Many Amer-
18 ican, NATO and Afghan troops have died to make 19 moments like this election possible.”. He also 20 extolled the American public to embrace its civic 21 duty, stating, “I hope everyone back home exercises 22 their precious right to vote. And that whether the 23 Republicans or Democrats win, that we all remem-
24 ber that we have far more as Americans that unites 25 us than divides us.”.

1 (10) Tragically, on Saturday, November 3rd,
2 2018, Major Taylor was killed in an attack in Af-
3 ghanistan. He was survived by his wife, Jennie, and 4 his seven children, Megan, Lincoln, Alex, Jacob,
5 Ellie, Jonathan, and Caroline.

6 (11) The impression that Major Taylor left was 7 indelible. An Afghan officer who had served with 8 Major Taylor, penned a letter to his wife, stating,
9 “Your husband taught me to love my wife Hamida
10 as an equal and treat my children as treasured gifts, 11 to be a better father, to be a better husband, and 12 to be a better man.”. That officer further com-13 mented that, “He died on our soil but he died for 14 the success of freedom and democracy in both of our 15 countries.”.

16 (12) It is only well and fitting that, as a tribute
17 to this man’s amazing life, Congress name a facility
18 in honor of Major Taylor’s shining example of serv-
19 ice and sacrifice.

20 SEC. 2. DESIGNATION OF MAJOR BRENT TAYLOR VET CEN-
21 TER OUTSTATION IN NORTH OGDEN, UTAH.

22 (a) DESIGNATION.—The outstation of the Depart-
23 ment of Veterans Affairs located at 2357 North 400 East
24 Washington Boulevard, North Ogden, Utah, shall, after 25 the date of the enactment of this Act, be known and des-

1 ignated as the “Major Brent Taylor Vet Center
2 Outstation”.

3 (b) REFERENCE.—Any reference in any law, regula-4 tion, map, document, paper, or other record of the United 5 States to the facility referred to in subsection (a) shall 6 be considered to be a reference to the Major Brent Taylor
7 Vet Center Outstation.
